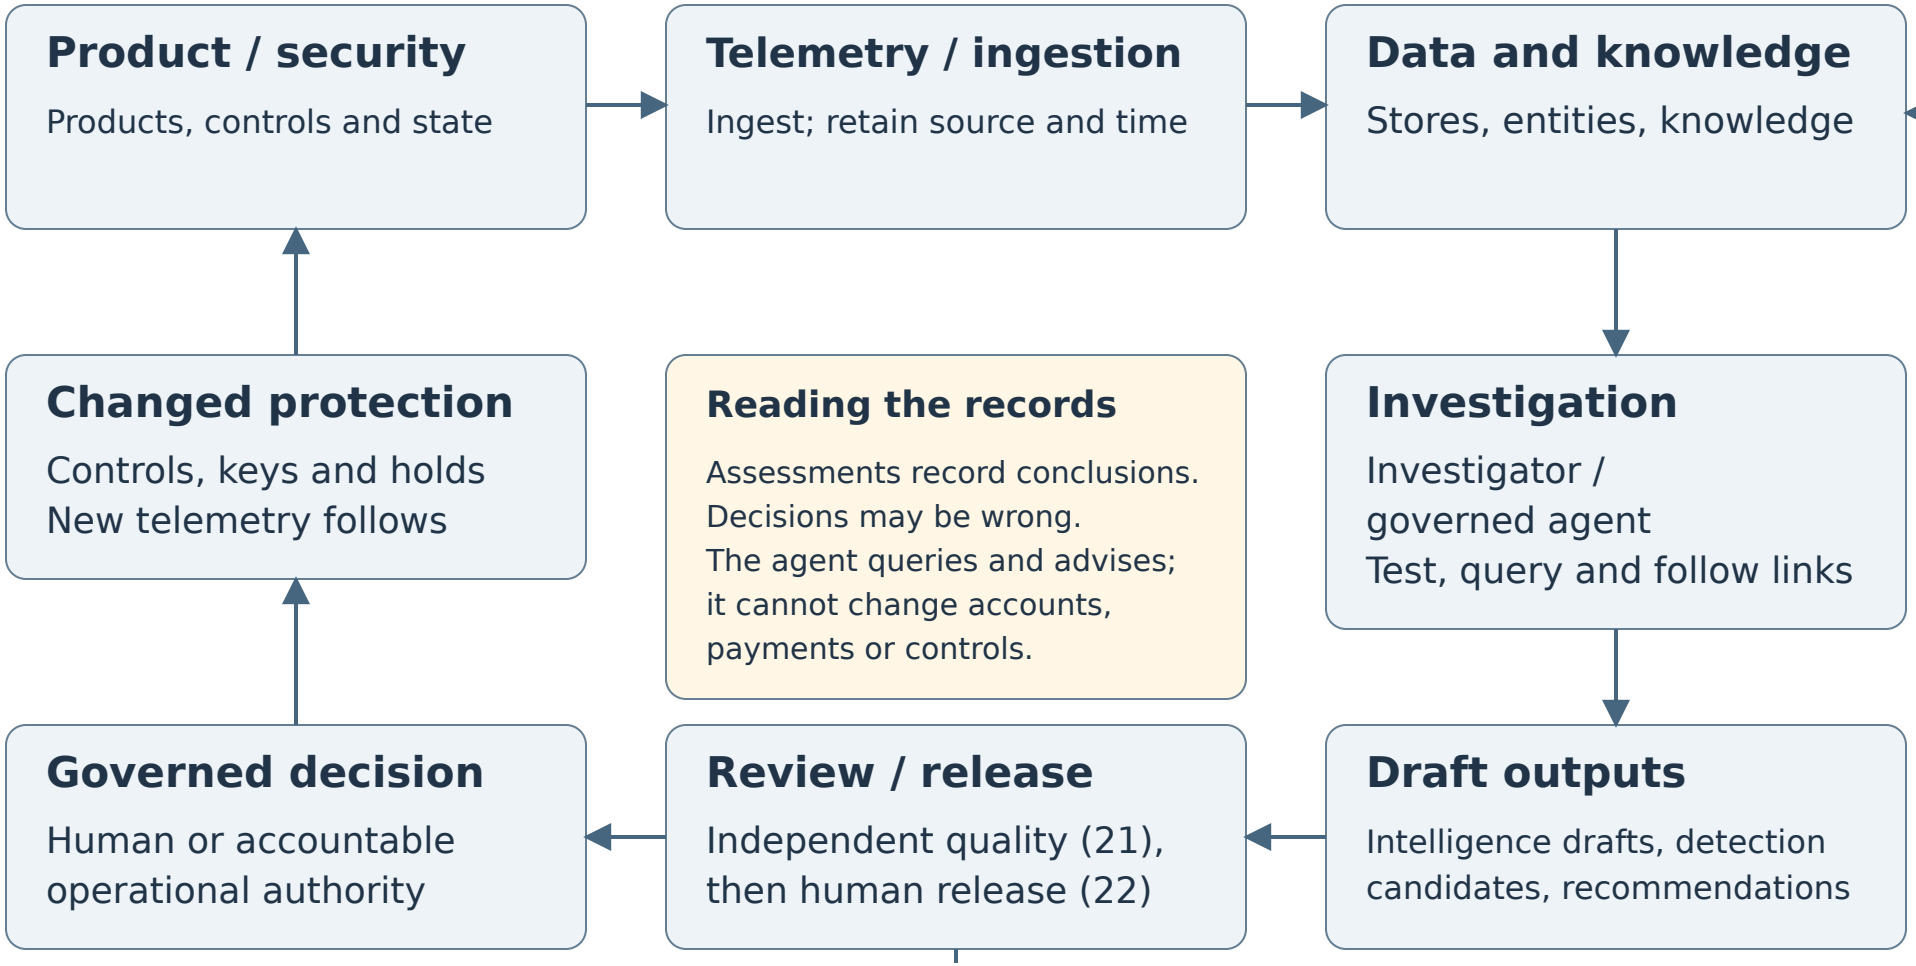
From product records to protective decisions



Released intelligence and validated lessons become available to later investigations, with their scope and version preserved.

Supplement S4 lists all 24 responsibilities, including inherited functions.